

Asia Pacific Research and Training Network on Trade (ARTNeT)'s 5th Anniversary

2 - 3 November 2009, Bangkok

Parallel session 2 (out of 9)

Session 2: Anti-Protectionism? The Rise of Minilateralism and the Expansion of the Trans-Pacific Partnership Agreement in the Asia-Pacific Organized

Chaired by: Deborah K. Elms, Temasek Foundation Centre for Trade &
Negotiations, RSIS, Nanyang Technological University

Henry Gao, Singapore Management University [The Trans-Pacific
Strategic Economic Partnership Agreement: High Standard or Missed Opportunity]

Deborah K. Elms, Temasek Foundation Centre for Trade & Negotiations, RSIS, Nanyang Technological University [Why Expand in a Time of crisis?]

Ann Capling, University of Melbourne [Multilateralizing Regionalism
in East Asia: What Role for Australia?]

John Ravenhill, Australian National University [Extending the TPP:
The Political Economy of Multilateralization]